It was August 20, 1922 (September 2, 1922 with the Gregorian calendar), just a week away from the violent intrusion of the Turkish para-militants and the fire that swept the city. For about 80

The Day Greeks of Smyrna Welcomed the Hellenic Fleet in Asia Minor

The Greek occupation ended when Turkish forces entered Smyrna on September 9, 1922, resulting in the Asia Minor catastrophe. The destruction of Smyrna, when Greeks were forced to flee the city due to a fire set by Turkish forces, still haunts Greece a century later.
